Dear Dr. Duane Thresher,

Thank you for your inquiry.

Mr. Ryan James Kalember is listed in the Stanford Alumni directory as having graduated in with BA in History in 2000, Classics 2001.

He is not listed in either the 2000 or 2001 yearbooks.

Regards,
Information Center/BM

Ask us:

There is a man, Ryan Kalember, who claims to have a BA from Stanford, from various departments.

I've checked with Stanford degree certification officials and they can't confirm that. However, there could be valid reasons for this.

Could you look up Ryan Kalember in the Stanford yearbooks or other relevant documents and see if he is there and if he is, what his major was and when he graduated?

From what I can tell he would have graduated around 1998, plus or minus a couple of years.
